Provided that the Secretary of the Transport Authority, may, if satisfied on an application made to him in writing by the permit holder within the period of fourteen days aforesaid that there is sufficient ground, grant an extension or extensions of time not exceeding four months in the aggregate for the production of the records.

Endorsement or extension to be deemed to be renewed if orders are not passed on application within three months.

189. If an application for the renewal of an endorsement or extension has been made in accordance with these rules and the prescribed fee paid by the prescribed date, the endorsement or extension shall continue to be effective until orders are passed on the application or until the expiry of three months from the date of receipt of the application, whichever is earlier. If orders on the application are not passed within three months from the date of receipt of the application, the permit holder shall be entitled to have the endorsement or extension renewed by the Transport Authority for the period specified in the application or for one year, whichever is less, and the Transport Authority shall call upon the permit holder to produce the registration certificate or certificates and Part B or Parts A and B of the permit, as the case may be, and endorse the renewal in Parts A and B of the permit accordingly and return them to the permit holder.

Provided that the permit holder shall forfeit his claim to have the endorsement or extension renewed under this rule, if he fails to produce the documents aforesaid within fourteen days from the date of despatch of the order requiring the production of the records:

Provided further that the Secretary of the Transport Authority may, if satisfied, on an application made to him in writing by the permit holder within the period of fourteen days aforesaid that there is sufficient ground, grant an extension or extensions of time not exceeding fourm months in the aggregate for the production of the records:

Provided also that an endorsement or extension shall not in any case be deemed to be effective unless the original permit remains effective."
